

Fee Free TAFE eligibility criteria

Fee Free TAFE and vocational education is a joint initiative of the Australian and South Australian Governments providing tuition-free training places to students wanting to train, retrain or upskill.

To be eligible for Fee Free TAFE people must at the time the course commences:

- Live or work in South Australia
- Be an Australian or New Zealand citizen, permanent Australian resident or an eligible VISA holder (see below)
- Be aged 16 years or over and not enrolled at school.

School students are not eligible to undertake Skill Set short courses under the subsidised fee rate or for free as these courses are not on the approved Subsidised Training List for Secondary School students

For more information on eligibility please visit the TAFE SA Website
