1	Sri Lanka	The RPL assessment evaluated 24 candidates. This was conducted over 16 days, divided into two groups, each with 12 students. Each group participated in 8 days with 7-hour sessions in length: 112 hours of practical engagement. Each Student presented 48 different products totalling between the two groups, over 1100 presented items. The assessment covered core competencies and learning outcomes outlined in the Certificate III in Patisserie training plan. Students were evaluated on their ability to create, prepare, and present a variety of patisserie products, as well as their understanding of food safety, hygiene, and the theoretical aspects of patisserie work.	1164.30
