

COMMUNITY SERVICES PATHWAYS

PACKAGES IN COMMUNITY SERVICES.

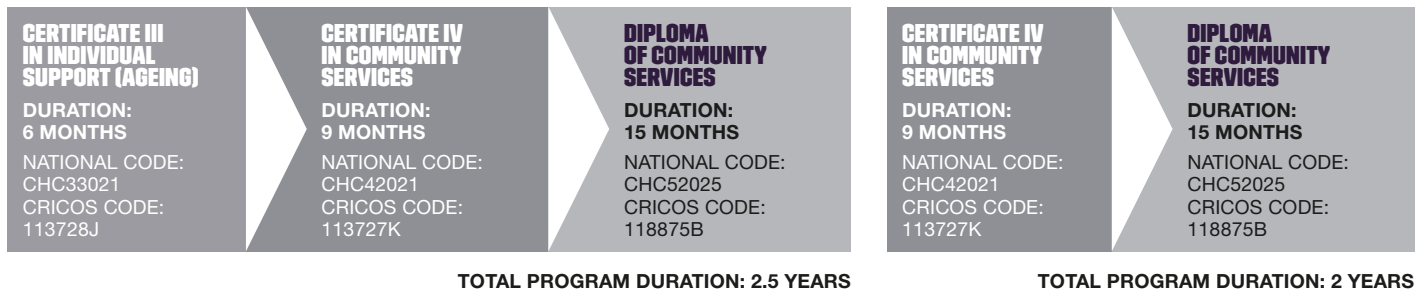

Graduate ready to support individuals and communities with TAFE SA's Community Services pathway.

Choose your starting point: begin with the Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing) (113728J, CHC33021) to build foundational knowledge and gain entry-level employment in care settings, or start directly with the Certificate IV in Community Services (113727K, CHC42021) if you're ready for more advanced training.

Progress through to the Diploma of Community Services (118875B, CHC52025) to deepen your skills in case management, advocacy and crisis response. Develop technical capability through over 200 hours of industry placement across a range of community service agencies.

Train with experienced educators at campuses across Adelaide and regional South Australia.

It's your career, you decide where it takes you.
