This Schedule of Fees is current at 24 March 2025 and is subject to change without notification.

Concession may be available to eligible students enrolling into an eligible Government funded course if they hold a valid Health Care, Pensioner or Veterans Affairs Pensioner concession card.

A student will be required to pay tuition fees upfront once their course loan CAP has been reached - The GAP FEE is dependent on an individual students circumstances i.e eligibility for subsidised training and/or elective units selected for their qualification. Students will be advised of this when they apply.

TAFE SA has open enrolments and self-paced learning and the commencement date of each Unit of Study is selected by the student on their registration into their class.

The Census Day column shows how many days after the selected commencement date the Census Date for that specific Unit of Study will fall

Once registered, students will be allocated Census Dates for each of their classes. These Census Dates can be checked using the Census Date calculator:

This Schedule of Fees is current at 24 March 2025 and is subject to change without notification.

Concession may be available to eligible students enrolling into an eligible Government funded course if they hold a valid Health Care, Pensioner or Veterans Affairs Pensioner concession card.

A student will be required to pay tuition fees upfront once their course loan CAP has been reached - The GAP FEE is dependent on an individual students circumstances i.e eligibility for subsidised training and/or elective units selected for their qualification. Students will be advised of this when they apply.

TAFE SA has open enrolments and self-paced learning and the commencement date of each Unit of Study is selected by the student on their registration into their class.

The Census Day column shows how many days after the selected commencement date the Census Date for that specific Unit of Study will fall

Once registered, students will be allocated Census Dates for each of their classes. These Census Dates can be checked using the Census Date calculator:

This Schedule of Fees is current at 24 March 2025 and is subject to change without notification.

Concession may be available to eligible students enrolling into an eligible Government funded course if they hold a valid Health Care, Pensioner or Veterans Affairs Pensioner concession card.

A student will be required to pay tuition fees upfront once their course loan CAP has been reached - The GAP FEE is dependent on an individual students circumstances i.e eligibility for subsidised training and/or elective units selected for their qualification. Students will be advised of this when they apply.

TAFE SA has open enrolments and self-paced learning and the commencement date of each Unit of Study is selected by the student on their registration into their class.

The Census Day column shows how many days after the selected commencement date the Census Date for that specific Unit of Study will fall

Once registered, students will be allocated Census Dates for each of their classes. These Census Dates can be checked using the Census Date calculator:

This Schedule of Fees is current at 24 March 2025 and is subject to change without notification.

Concession may be available to eligible students enrolling into an eligible Government funded course if they hold a valid Health Care, Pensioner or Veterans Affairs Pensioner concession card.

A student will be required to pay tuition fees upfront once their course loan CAP has been reached - The GAP FEE is dependent on an individual students circumstances i.e eligibility for subsidised training and/or elective units selected for their qualification. Students will be advised of this when they apply.

TAFE SA has open enrolments and self-paced learning and the commencement date of each Unit of Study is selected by the student on their registration into their class.

The Census Day column shows how many days after the selected commencement date the Census Date for that specific Unit of Study will fall
